

The Stubblebine Company brokers 61,000 s.f. of industrial space in Methuen MA for Graebel Van Lines

December, 2007

The Stubblebine Company recently represented Graebel Van Lines in the lease of the entire 61,000 sf building located at 200 Danton Drive, Methuen MA. The property is located adjacent to I-93 and has immediate access to I-495. This modern property is situated on 11.80 acres, has 26' clear height, and seven loading docks and a drive-in door.

According to James Stubblebine, "Graebel Van lines chose this property because of it's excellent highway access, hi-bay warehouse space, large paved lot and excellent loading.

Graebel Van Lines provides integrated world-wide relocation and storage services and in every major market in the United States.

James Stubblebine and David Stubblebine, principals of The Stubblebine Company, represented the Tenant. The Landlord, Lewis Haefitz of Equity Industrial was represented in-house by Bruce Levine.
